THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—The White House said today President Eisenhower would consider visiting Russia if future developments indicate it would serve the cause of peace.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty made the statement in commenting on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's invitation to Eisenhower Thursday to come to the Soviet Union.

But Hagerty stressed that Eisenhower has no present plans to go there.

The press secretary earlier had declined comment on the Khrushchev invitation, extended informally in a speech by the Kremlin leader at the Moscow 21st congress of the Communist party.

But today Hagerty volunteered this statement at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters.

"Premier Khrushchev's invitation to President Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union occurred in a lengthy speech which contained very hostile references to United States leaders."

"It seems strange that Premier Khrushchev, if he really welcomes a visit by the President, would extend it in such circumstances."

"The President had no present plans to make such a visit."

In fact, he hasn't received any invitation except through the reports of an off-hand invitation extended in a political speech.

"Ever since he has been in office, President Eisenhower has not."

House Okays Extension of the Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Extension of the military draft, overwhelmingly approved Thursday by the House, headed today for slower action in the Senate.

Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said hearings on the legislation will be held in "ample time before the expiration of the law," June 30. However, no time was set.

The House, taking up the draft extension bill as one of its first items, passed it 301-20 Thursday.

In just the form President Eisenhower and the Pentagon had recommended.

The bill would extend until June 30, 1963, the government's authority to draft young men for military service. ## DeGaulle and Dulles Are in Agreement

By DAVE MASON

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and President Charles de Gaulle found themselves in agreement today, as in the past, to maintain Western access to Berlin. They conferred for an hour and a half.

American and French spokesmen said the talks covered a wide range of problems, but no new decisions were reached.

The spokesman said, however, that De Gaulle and Dulles were in complete agreement that the West must maintain its routes to West Berlin, 101 miles behind the Iron Curtain, and would not accept any move by the Soviet Union to substitute East Germans for the Soviet soldiers in those positions where the four occupying powers come together in Berlin.

The American spokesman said the talks in Paris had progressed in a similar manner to those in London. There Dulles conferred with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who is going to Moscow Feb. 21 for a visit that the British hope will ease East-West tensions.

Dulles is going on Saturday to Bonn for talks with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer about Western problems, primarily how to approach fresh negotiations with the Soviet Union on the German unification question.

He had a meeting with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville before seeing De Gaulle.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Harrison reported a minimum reading of 10 below zero early today and several sub-zero lows were registered in other sections of the state.

A great band of snow three to seven inches deep lay across the top of the state.

Yesterday's surprise snowfall extended as far south as Searcy and Clarksville.

Fair skies and warmer temperatures are forecast tonight and tomorrow.

The 10-below reading at Harrison was the coldest reported in Arkansas this winter. At mid-morning the temperature there had risen only to 6-below.

Harrison caught six and one-half inches of snow.

Schools which closed at Harrison, Fayetteville and several other north Arkansas points yesterday remained shut today.

Driving conditions throughout the area were hazardous, but the Arkansas Highway Department at Little Rock said shortly before noon that all roads in the state were open.

Although Jonesboro's public schools held classes today, nine of the 12 schools in Craighead County were closed because of ice-coated roads.

Greene County Tech. at Paragould cancelled classes today and other closings were reported in rural areas of Mississippi, Jackson and Boggs counties.

It was 2-below zero at Fayetteville early today, and 1 below at Flippin.

Other minimum readings included 4 below at Walnut Ridge, 17 at Fort Smith, 25 at Little Rock, 27 at Pine Bluff, 30 at Texarkana and a freezing 32 at El Dorado.

Little steel fell at Little Rock last night.

The forecast called for warmer temperatures in north Arkansas tonight and a continued rise tomorrow. Temperatures in the rest of the state were expected to remain rather cold this afternoon and tonight but also were due to rise tomorrow.

Highs varying from the low 30s to the high 40s were expected in Arkansas this afternoon. Tonight's lows are expected to range from 10 to 25 degrees in the north and 25 to 35 in the south, and highs of 45 to 55 are in the outlook for tomorrow.

Alford to Offer Another Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) plans to introduce soon another bill designed to place some curbs on the U.S. Supreme Court. He has introduced one already.

Alford revealed his intentions for a second bill yesterday but said he didn't intend to discuss it because he still is doing research on it.

The Arkansasian's previous bill is similar to one by Rep. Howard Smith (D-Va.) which passed the House last year but failed in the Senate.

Alford's bill would provide that the court couldn't void state laws in areas where state and federal governments both have jurisdiction unless the federal act expressly specifies that state laws were excluded. It also calls for enforcement of state anti-subversive laws unless Congress provides to the contrary.

Bill Bans Any Employment of NAACP Member

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House today passed a bill to outlaw employment by any state or local government agency of any member of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The bill was one of a package of 15 anti-integration measures introduced Wednesday under sponsorship of Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett.

Vote on the bill was 72-2. It was submitted by Prairie Rep. John P. Bethell.

Pulaski Reps. J. H. Cottrell Jr. and Gayle Windsor cast the dissenting ballots.

The house also passed a bill by Hempstead Rep. Talbot Field Jr. to permit school board meetings to be held in jail if a board member is incarcerated because of opposition to court-ordered integration.

The bill further states that no board member shall be removed from office because of his arrest in such a case.

This measure was not in the Bennett package.

A bill to allow the governor to fill school board vacancies occurring for any other reason than expiration of term was called up for discussion but was withdrawn when opposition developed.

Field, author of this measure, pulled it back after the House vote 38 to 37 not to limit debate.

Rep. Feild's Proposal Calling for Repeal of 14th Amendment Gets Full Backing of House

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A move to erase the 14th Amendment from the Constitution of the United States had the unanimous backing of the Arkansas House of Representatives today.

Rep. Talbot Field Jr. of Hempstead County presented his attack on the controversial amendment in a 45-minute speech to the House yesterday. Many members of the Senate were on hand and joined in an ovation at the conclusion.

The House then swiftly passed, 27-0, a resolution calling for a study of the amendment by a special commission on Constitutional and a nationwide referendum on the validity of the amendment.

Field said other state legislatures would be asked to pass similar resolutions. "Curling the U.S. Supreme Court should become the business of all 49 states," he added.

He proposed that the special commission should do a study of whether the U.S. Senate which originated the 14th Amendment was a truly constitutional body, whether the amendment was constitutionally submitted to the people and whether the amendment was constitutionally ratified by a sufficient number of states.

The commission, under his proposal, would be named by the chairman of the standing committee of Congress. The commission's findings would be subject to challenge by the various state legislatures, and if five or more did challenge, the question would be put to a popular vote in a special nationwide election.

If a majority ruled against the amendment, it would become null and void.

While the House was thus engaged with national affairs, the Arkansas Senate took up state appropriations and an economy bill held up passage of the general appropriations bill.

This is the measure that provides funds for the state's executive, judicial and legislative branches and the objection was put to it contains several increases.

Sen. R. H. Williams of Russellville led the opposition with a plan to "think of the taxpayers." On a roll call, the bill failed 18-14. Because it appropriates more than two and a half million dollars, 27 votes are needed for passage.

The bill was sent back to the joint budget committee which probably will work out a compromise.

Apparently siding with the Senate, the House gave a unanimous 91-0 approval to a bill which would permit public school teachers to retain their eligibility in the state retirement system even though they transfer to a private school. A similar bill already has been introduced.

Rogers Files Suit Against Alabama Board

WASHINGTON (AP) Atty. Gen. Rogers today filed suit in U.S. District Court at Montgomery, Ala., charging the Board of Registrars of Macon County, Ala., with discriminating against Negroes seeking to qualify as voters.

The suit is the second of its kind under the 1957 Civil Rights Act designed to protect voting rights.

Any action against the registrars of Terrell County, Ga., which takes the same discrimination issue, is now awaiting trial in the Federal Court at Columbus, Ga.

The action at Montgomery named as defendants the Macon Registrars Board and Grady Rogers and E. L. Livingston.

Grady Rogers and Livingston in December announced their resignations. Macon registrars after being ordered by the U.S. District Court to produce the records for examination by the Civil Rights Commission.

The Justice Department suit took note of what it described as their "purported" resignations but asserted that under Alabama law they are required to continue their duties until successors have been appointed or installed.

The Montgomery suit alleged various discriminatory practices against Negroes seeking to register, including the maintenance of "separate" facilities for registration applicants.

The court was asked to enjoin all of these alleged discriminatory practices.

The government complaint listed 20 Negro citizens described as qualified for voting and said they had been refused registration "on the basis of race or color."

The list included 12 college graduates.

Macon County is the home of Tuskegee Institute, a leading Negro college. The Civil Rights Commission in Alabama hearings received testimony from more than a score of Negroes convicted with that institution that they had been unable to obtain voting rights.

Today's suit asserted that the county has about 1,100 Negro citizens of voting age of whom 110 or about 10 per cent are registered to vote, but that the Negro registrations number only 1,110, or about 8 per cent of approximately 14,000 Negroes of voting age in the county.

Soldier Takes $160 in a NLR Holdup

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Police reported today that an 18-year-old soldier took about $160 in a hold-up yesterday and escaped in a stolen automobile driven by a 13-year-old boy.

The soldier and the boy were arrested later.

Police identified the soldier as Pvt. Kenneth R. Callaway of Oklahoma City, stationed at Fort Clark. He was held without formal charge.

The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Detectives said Callaway admitted holding up a grocery and taking $10 from the proprietor and a purse containing about $150 from a woman customer. The 13-year-old, who met Callaway in a restaurant after playing hockey from school, was waiting in the automobile and drove the car a few blocks before Callaway took the wheel. Callaway gave the boy $25 and a similar sum to a second boy, who apparently was not present at the robbery scene, police said.

Callaway also was quoted as admitting the hold-up of a bakery here Wednesday, taking $109. He was alone then.

'Lost Pilot' Just Forgot to Report

GARY, Ind. (AP)—A electrician said yesterday a search for his plane occurred because he forgot to report to airports on his flight from Little Rock, Ark.

Tom Patterson, owner of Suburban Electric Co. in nearby Griffith, said he landed safely on a private landing strip at Griffith yesterday.

Civil Air Patrol wings in Indiana, Illinois and Missouri were alerted for a search when word was heard from Patterson after he reported in over Malden, Mo., just before noon Wednesday.

"I failed to close my flight plan," Patterson told a newsmen. "It was an oversight."

Patterson wouldn't say whether any passengers were with him in his flight in his four-place plane, nor would he discuss the nature of his trip.

passed by the Senate. The House also, by adopting a crippling amendment, stalled off action on a bill to provide for creation of county equalizing school districts. Rep. Ben Allen of Pulaski County submitted the amendment which would exempt for two years any counties in which a public school has been closed to halt integration.

While only Pulaski County would be affected, Rep. J. H. Gottlieb of Pulaski said the amendment changed the purpose of his bill and added that he would not call it up for a vote.

The House received a new bill to set up a 22-member Committee of Higher Education to study problems of the state's tax-financed colleges. Presidents and board chairmen of the state's eight colleges would be included on the committee which would submit its report to the Legislature in 1961.

Nye Denies He Plotted to Kill Castro

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

The 31-year-old former U.S. Navy pilot from Whiting, Ind., declared his innocence in an interview Thursday with U.S. Vice Consul Hugh Kessler.

He told Kessler he had signed no confession, despite a formal statement by Cuban police that he had done so. After first accepting visits from consular officials reluctantly, Nye now welcomes them, it was said.

Reporters have been barred from talking with Nye. He was taken back to Cuba's Bureau of Investigation from military headquarters at Camp Liberty for further questioning today.

Action Completed on Integration Measure

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Legislative action was completed today on one of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' new anti-integration measures.

The Senate passed, 30-2, a bill to permit pupils after an approving vote of any school district, to receive their state school aid directly rather than having it paid to the schools as now.

The pupil would be allowed to use the allotment for attendance at any school he wished.

The negative votes were cast by Sen. Sam Levine of Pine Bluff, who spoke against the bill, and Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock.

The House previously had passed the measure. It now goes to Faubus.

Another Plane Crash Leaves Arkansan Dead

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The second crash in three days at the Little Rock Air Force Base last night killed an Arkansan and injured four other persons.

Dead is T-Sgt. Edwin Cary Wilson, 31, a resident of Jacksonville and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett E. Wilson of Newark, near Batesville.

The plane, a B-25 two-engine bomber, plowed into the ground as it approached the base airstrip for a landing after completing a flight to Barksdale Air Force Base near Shreveport, La.

Injured, none seriously, were Capt. Donald A. St. Martin of Fairbault, Minn., the pilot; 1st Lt. Eugene H. Matkins of Elton College, N.C., the co-pilot; Maj. Leonard S. ## Would Put Colleges on Same Footing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bill to put the University of Arkansas on the same footing in appropriations as seven state colleges was introduced in the Arkansas House today.

White County Rep. J. H. Mody submitted the measure, which would have the effect of reducing the universities' appropriation drastically.

The bill would not affect the University's Medical Center, Schools of Medicine, Pharmacy and Nursing, or the Graduate Institute of Technology.

Little Red Cap Led to Death

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Jack Le-lin put on his little red cap and went out to play.

On other days, the 5-year-old boy would be in the house late afternoon. But Thursday was an especially nice day, and his mother told him he could go outside for a few minutes.

Just stay near home, she told him. And don't forget your cap. Jack stayed near the house with a few of his friends. As children do, they tugged and pushed at each other, and then someone grabbed a cap and tossed it toward the street. A new game was on.

Other caps followed. Soon Jack's little red cap landed in the street. His companions laughed as he scrambled for it.

The laughter was drowned out by the sound of brakes and a sickening thump.

At the wheel of the car, his eyes fixed in horror, sat a neighbor, Herbert Fox, 67.

A patrolman lowered a blanket over the child, covering also the little red cap that lay next to him.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Joy Lee Wilson, and two children, Michael, 7, and Linda, 5.

The earlier crash at the base involving a B-47, killed all three men aboard.

UA Against a Second University

By JOHN H. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The president of the University of Arkansas said today granting of university status to Arkansas State College at Jonesboro would hamper the entire program of higher education in the state.

Dr. John T. Caldwell told the Arkansas House "this state is now struggling to produce one real university. We cannot afford to dilute this program."

Caldwell and Dr. Carl Reng, president of Arkansas State, appeared before the House to debate merits of a bill which would give university status to Arkansas State.

Reng said his school deserved the promotion and needed the name "university" for prestige purposes.

"Having a university in an area creates an industrial climate," Reng said. "We're not competing with the University of Arkansas. We merely want to build and grow with the state."

Caldwell said there were only two questions to be resolved. Does Arkansas need a second university? Would creation of one raise educational standards in the state?

He indicated he felt both questions should be answered in the negative.

"What is the magic in the name 'university'?" Caldwell asked. "There is nothing inferior about a college. A college can raise itself to any educational height it chooses to set."

Reng said that Oklahoma, Tennessee and Mississippi recently created second universities without damaging their educational programs.

But Caldwell said that only 11 of the 49 states now support more than one state university and Mississippi is the only low income state in this group.

"The problem of the colleges is to raise their programs to a high quality. Then they will not lose students, either to the University of Arkansas or institutions in other states."

Reng said Arkansas State has been accused of making a sudden move to attain university status. But he said the college's aspiration had been announced a year ago.

Caldwell said the university had been forewarned of the Jonesboro schools' bid, but had remained silent until recently because it felt the issue was so clearly drawn it was not necessary for the university to take a position.

"Let me make this clear," he said. "We are not against Arkansas State College or any other college."

But passage of this bill would postpone an adequate university program at the University of Arkansas and therefore we must oppose it.

The Senate passed the bill to promote Arkansas State by a tight 18-16 vote.

A strong faction in the House is aligned against the proposal.

Pair Involved in 182 Robberies

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Two men already facing federal charges in a $23,000 bank robbery were named today in a 182 liquor store hold-up.

Polk County Sheriff C. T. Sullivan said at Harrisburg that witnesses had identified James Hand and Lee A. Chadwick as the men who last month kidnapped a taxicab driver and forced him to drive them to Waldenburg, where one of the pair held up Louis's Liquor Store and obtained $182,000.

Hand, 19, and Chadwick, 26, were arraigned here yesterday in the robbery of the Bank of Weiner Monday, when $22,988 was taken. They waived preliminary hearing and were held in default of bond of $25,000 each for action of the federal grand jury.

Sullivan said state charges would be filed against the two in the liquor store robbery.

Authorities are searching for Joe Mullins, 425, of Leachville, as a third man in the bank robbery.

A relative, Johnny Mullins, 26, was arrested and charged with having transported the men before the hold-up although not of having had any part in the actual robbery. He was held for grand jury action in lieu of $15,000 bond.

Acts to Delay Test of Laws

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus moved yesterday to get a delay in a federal court test of the state laws under which he closed Little Rock's four public high schools.

Faubus' attorneys asked U.S. District Court here to put off a scheduled three-judge hearing on the laws until state courts can rule on them.

The hearing was requested by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. U.S. District Judge John E. Miller agreed to convene the three-judge panel but has not set a date.

Both laws in question—Acts 4 and 5 of the August, 1958, special session of the Legislature—have been challenged in state courts.

Padlocked Youths Die in House Fire

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Two small boys, left alone in a padlocked home while their unemployed father looked for a job, died when fire destroyed the two-room dwelling.

Police said the father, Howard R. Boyd, was saying he had left Stephen Edward, 3, and Jimmy Lee, 5, asleep on a couch while he went to hunt work. He said he had been without a job for 18 months.

His wife, Martha, also 20, was at her job as a waitress at the time of the tragedy. She said she and her husband could not afford a babysitter.

$150,000 Damage in Fort Smith Fire

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Fire swept through the office and warehouse of a building materials supply firm here last night, causing damage estimated at $150,000.

Flames fed by paint, varnish and stored lumber cracked through much of the night.

The buildings, which belonged to the Forest Products Co., Inc., were total losses. J. B. Gramlich, firm manager, estimated the damage.

Fire Chief R. L. Rudd said cause of the fire had not been determined. He said it broke out in the open warehouse and was spread by high winds into the adjoining office.

In 1950, 81,000 oil wells were completed in the United States.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 1959-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

Baseball Being Tested in the Move West

By JIM KENSIL

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP)—San Francisco and Los Angeles, major league baseball's youngest franchises, today were being viewed as "testing grounds for the most significant business move" in the national game since somebody first passed the hot around an open field.

That would be the televising of major league games on a pay-as-you-see basis. As outlined to The Associated Press Thursday by Skiatron, "America," the subscription TV plan is being readied for introduction in the two Pacific Coast cities about July 1. The move had been talked about ever since 1957, when the former New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers first announced they would move West.

For months Skiatron, reportedly involved greatly in the double franchise shift, maintained silence on the basis that it could not disclose information that would put "at a competitive disadvantage." But when questioned Thursday the company said its plans had folded to the extent that it expects to telecast into Los Angeles and San Francisco homes by the middle of the baseball season.

Additional Skiatron plans also call for pay TV of college football games in the two West Coast cities.

The sports telecasts would be part of the over-all programming which would include movies, plays, and other non-sports presentations. The cost of viewing a single game has not been set, Skiatron said, but it would be less than a fan pays at the gate.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said today it is proper that pay TV should get a trial on a regional basis. But he added that until a thorough test is made, he would not want to comment on its national significance to the game. He said he considers pay TV still to be a matter left to the discretion of the individual clubs.

Many Expect Many Things of Television

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Here's an exchange of opinions with Mrs. Clyde Evans of Biloxi, Miss., who undoubtedly expresses the sentiments of millions of American television viewers.

She writes: "In today's paper you wrote, 'The coming seven days can't be called the most memorable week of the season on television, but there are several programs worth the twist of a dial.'"

"I'd like to ask, along with dozens of other TV watchers, how you arrive at such conclusions? Why must we observe dozens of boring scientific programs or an hour of Philharmonic music to be spending our time wisely? 'Most people can read all they care to in the daily newspapers or take a course in night school if they are interested. We enjoy an occasional 15 minutes about rockets, mental illness, pop, jazz or the classics.'"

"We are dull, unthinking people by Sunday and would prefer to be entertained with 'Andy Hardy' and 'Shirley Temple' rather than 'Kaleidoscope' and '20th Century.' We get the condition of education in our P.T.A. thoughts on the spiritual condition of our country in our church."

"Please tell me what's wrong with escaping a few hours a week into the Westens that are fantastic but unfrightening, or laughing with Lucy, Bob Cummings, George Burns or Bob Hope or Benny? As a housewife I also enjoy the soap operas if I don't watch too often. Most of the dramas are either dull or to deep."

In reply to Mrs. Evans: My opinions on 'pick of the week' programs might be construed as condescending to all programs I don't mention. I realize. But I am asked to give my personal preferences each week, and that they are. The fact that I'd rather watch '20th Century' than a Western doesn't mean I'm smarter than you. Rather, it means that I expect something different from television than you do.

Personally, I want television to stimulate rather than relax me. But I don't expect it to do that every time I turn on the set. There is absolutely nothing wrong that I can imagine in escaping for a few hours each week into television's fantasyland. But you and many other viewers constantly suggest that television should be only a relaxing agent—never a stimulant.

Commercial television, as now constituted, is devoted almost totally to the type of programs you and I, to, in moderation—enjoy. Let's hope it never falls to develop a few hours weekly to day to strengthen civil rights laws you, to, in moderation—enjoy.

Capitol Hill Shocked by Plane Incident

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The gruff terrifying words: "The target is burning. I will finish him off, boys," echoed on Capitol Hill today with shocked demands or stepped-up defense programs.

The words, the State Department says, were those of Soviet jet pilots shooting down an unarmed U.S. transport plane.

At least 6, possibly 17, American airmen died in the fiery crash Sept. 2 of the unarmed C-130 transport near the border between Turkey and Soviet Armenia.

The plane admittedly had wandered across the border and over Soviet territory, but the State Department expressed a suspicion the crew may have been misled by Soviet radio signals.

State Department officials Thursday disclosed they have a graphic recording of harsh, barking voices they said were those of Soviet pilots sending the plane into its death plunge. An English translation was made public.

The department said the recording was absolutely authentic but wouldn't say where it came from.

The recording appeared to have caught First Dep. Soviet Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan uncomfortably in the center of the big lie approach to diplomacy. He brushed off several inquiries about the plane on his recent visit here and treated it as a routine crash.

The Russians turned over the bodies of six crewmen a short time after the crash but have consistently denied any knowledge of the 11 other airmen aboard the plane.

As two of the plane's unidentified victims were buried today with military honors in Arlington National Cemetery, two members of the Senate Armed Services Committee renewed demands for a speed-up in the defense program.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said: "It becomes more and more clear that some day we will have to stand against the growing Communist aggression. We will never put our defenses in a proper position to take that kind of a balanced budget."

Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) said the attack was the "most serious on our part."

Little Rock's growth as a commercial center began in 1836, followed by the establishment of a "hat manufactory" in 1840 and a brewery for beer and ale a little later.

At the court of Louis XIV of France, when the servants at Versailles were new, the head gardener put up warning signs—etiquettes—to keep people off the newly seeded lawns. When the courtiers ignored the signs, the king issued an edict commanding everyone to "keep within the etiquettes." Gradually the word came to mean all the rules of social behavior.

Survivors May Tell Cause of Plane Crash

NEW YORK (AP) — Investigators today planned hopes on two surviving crew members to an answer to why a big new airliner crashed near La Guardia Airport, killing 85 of the 92 aboard.
But both the crewman, the copilot and the flight engineer, the critically injured and cannot be questioned. The pilot was killed.
One big question to be answered was whether the lack of a radio beam for altitude guidance of the plane had any bearing on the crash.
The American Airlines craft, coming in from the northeast through an overcast after a non-stop flight from Chicago, had the aid of a radio beam which lined its approach with the runway designated for the landing.
An altitude beam—which tells planes whether they are approaching to high or too low—is in use on the same runway as those landing from the southwest. Wind determines landing direction.
The altitude beam has been in use for the southwest approach because it is over a populated area. The northeast approach is over the East River.
The airliner coming in at midnight Tuesday smashed into the river and broke up about half a mile from the end of the runway.
The La Guardia control tower said the plane had given no indication of trouble before the crash.
Twenty-two bodies have been recovered. Search was resumed today for 43 others, including that of the pilot.
Of the 65 who lost their lives, 50 were men and 12 were women. Three were children. Six of the eight survivors are in critical condition.
The copilot, Frank S. Hlavacek, 33, of Wilmette, Ill., suffered a broken jaw, pelvis and breaks of both legs, as well as internal injuries.
The flight engineer, Warren E. Cook, 38, of Aurora, Ill., received numerous injuries which were not listed in detail by the hospital.
Operations also were continued today for the salvaging of additional portions of the wrecked plane, lying in about 30 to 35 feet of water. Some sections were brought up Wednesday. Others were found floating.
Numerous investigators are inspecting these for answers to many questions raised by the crash.

MacMillan to Visit Moscow in February

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan has accepted an invitation to visit the Soviet Union beginning Feb. 21.
Macmillan will be accompanied by Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and will stay up to 10 days.
Moscow radio broadcast acceptance of the invitation simultaneous with an official announcement in London.
The announcements came only minutes after the departure from the British capital of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles for Paris after two days of talks with Macmillan and other British leaders on Western policy including West Berlin's future and German unification.
Dulles met Macmillan at noon after an hour-long session with Lloyd.
It was the concluding round in a series of talks on international issues that Dulles had held in London since he flew in from Washington Wednesday.
Dulles has scheduled further discussions on the German questions with French leaders.
He will fly to Bonn at the end of the week for conferences with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and other officials.
Dulles and British leaders agree the West is opposed to the Soviet proposals on West Berlin and Germany but a final policy awaits Macmillan's scouting mission to Moscow.

Jury Hearing Results of GM Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal grand jury in New York is now hearing the results of an extended Justice Department inquiry into affairs of General Motors Corp., the department said today.
A spokesman, responding to inquiries, declined to pinpoint the direction action may take. He denied that the grand jury study signifies that decisions on that point have been made.
The spokesman said the grand jury is getting "evidence" that has been obtained by theitrust Division in the course of an investigation that has been under way for some time.
The grand jury phase recalled frequent expressions of concern by Justice Department officials in recent years over possible "undue concentration" in the automobile manufacturing field. The latest such expression came Wednesday.
General Motors, called the world's largest single manufacturer enterprise, produces five makes of automobiles: Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac; operates its own auto-financing company, General Motors Acceptance Corp., and has a wide variety of other products including diesel railroad locomotives, earth moving machinery and household appliances.
